The Construction Contracts Act 2013... 4 years on

The Young Members Group of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, Ireland Branch, will host a free online panel discussion to review the 4 years following the commencement of the Construction Contracts Act 2013. This is a follow-on event from the hugely popular 3-year, 18-month and 1-year review held in July 2019, January 2018 and July 2017.

The panel discussion and open Q&A session will be held by teleconference to commence at 11am sharp on Friday 3rd July. Those wishing to attend will have to pre-register. Log-in details will be sent at a date closer to the event.

Speakers & Topics

1. What to Consider before triggering Adjudication – the nuts and bolts (Peter O'Malley, MCiarb, RIAI, RIBA, Dispute Practitioner)
2. Adjudication versus other forms of ADR and an emerging trend of avoiding Adjudication in favour of Conciliation etc- will this change in the face of Covid 19 (Alison Irvine, CIF)
3. Adjudication and Insolvency (Danyal Ibrahim, MRIAI, FCIARB; LLM)
4. Issues which have arisen in respect of the Adjudication process (Niav O'Higgins, Arthur Cox to look at this from the applicant/respondent point of view and Bernard Gogarty to comment on this from an Adjudicators prospective)
5. Recent Updates (Bernard Gogarty, Smyth & Son Solicitors)
6. CCA from the Specialist perspective (Sean Downey, CIF).
